Discussion: We still need donations. Anyone can help us get donations! Is your family willing to purchase and donate an item? Do you own a business and are you willing to donate your services? Does your family or a family you know, have a vacation home they would be willing to donate for a week or weekend during the summer? Is your family a season tickets holder for a professional sports team, a college team, or a cultural event that you would be willing to donate a game or show from the ticket package? Items that may get auction attendees excited are: grills, golf packages, bikes, limo services, and sports memorabilia.
